

COOKIE POLICY

WePlan srl, headquartered in Via Quintino Sella 75, 14100 Asti (AT), VAT number: 01567350051, REA number: AT125881, intends to inform you about the use of cookies on the website www.weplan.eu.

We respect your privacy and appreciate our relationship with you. Therefore, we have adapted our privacy and cookie policies to the European Privacy Regulation 2016/679.

We use technology on our website to collect information that helps improve your experience as well as our services. The cookies we use within the pages of our website facilitate its functioning and, by using it, you consent to the use of cookies in accordance with our privacy and cookie policy.

For a more detailed understanding of how we use personal data, please refer to our Privacy Policy.

What are cookies?

Cookies are small files containing small amounts of information that are downloaded to any Internet-enabled device such as a computer, smartphone or tablet when you visit a website.

Cookies can play different and useful roles, such as speeding up the opening of the pages of a website and, in general, improve your online experience.

Types of cookies used by this website

There are many types of cookies. For a detailed list of those used on our website, refer to the information below.

Technical cookies

This type of cookie is strictly necessary for the proper functioning of some sections of the website. There are two categories of technical cookie, persistent and session-related:

- 1) Persistent: they are not destroyed once the browser is closed, but remain in function up to a default due date;
- 2) Session-related: they are destroyed every time the browser is closed.

These cookies, always sent from our domain, are necessary to view the site correctly and, in relation to the technical services offered, will therefore always be used and sent unless the user does not change the settings in their browser (potentially disrupting the display of pages of the website).

How can you control or delete cookies?

There are many ways to manage cookies, for example you can refuse consent to our website by disabling them from your personal browser settings.

Control via browser settings

Most internet browsers are initially configured to automatically accept cookies.

In the event that you do not want our website to store cookies on your device, you can change your browser settings to receive notification before cookies are stored. You can also modify the settings so that the browser can refuse them and it is also possible to withdraw consent to cookies by deleting those that have already been stored.

Attention, disabling the cookies we use could have a negative impact on the browsing experience on our website, affecting its correct display.

If you use different devices to view and access the website (e.g. computer, smartphone, tablet), you need to make sure that each browser on each device is adjusted according to your cookie preferences.

The procedures for changing settings and cookies differ from browser to browser.

If necessary, use the browser help function or click on one of the following links to access the browser user manual directly.
